

Kerridge Commercial Systems appoints Fred Loos as Managing Director Benelux

Slidrecht, July 20, 2018 - Kerridge Commercial Systems (KCS), supplier of advanced, fully integrated business solutions for trading companies, wholesale and distribution, has appointed Fred Loos as Managing Director Benelux.

He brings 34 years of experience in IT and financial-logistical systems and takes over the role of Ian Bendelow, CEO of the KCS Group. In his role, Fred will manage the daily operations of both Kerridge Commercial Systems in Slidrecht and the recently acquired AGP Software in Veghel and Capelle aan den IJssel. He also plays an important role in uniting both companies and optimizing cooperation.

Prior to joining Kerridge Commercial Systems, Fred worked as General Manager at an international software company, where he was responsible for the SME market in the Netherlands and Belgium. During his career he gained extensive experience in the direction of IT and management, through various management positions and training courses.

Fred: "I am honored to have been approached for the position of Managing Director Benelux and I look forward to contributing to the further growth of Kerridge Commercial Systems in the Benelux. At the beginning of 2018 the company took over AGP Software. I can not wait to merge the various entities into a successful whole and I am very motivated to spot new opportunities for expansion."

Ian Bendelow, CEO of KCS Group: "We are delighted to welcome Fred to our team. Based on his expertise and proven track record, I am convinced that he is a valuable addition to our business in the Benelux. Personal contact is very important to Fred, and that makes him extremely suitable for connecting teams and building the company's development. The appointment is another step in the growth of Kerridge Commercial Systems in the Benelux and beyond. "

// We are delighted to welcome Fred to our team. Based on his expertise and proven track record, I am convinced that he is a valuable addition to our business in the Benelux.
